

DRAFT AGENDA – Overview

(CEST/Stockholm time)

14.30 – 15.00	Beyond Limits: AI's Role in Solving the World's Water Crisis Public Roundtable, hosted by GWP's Technical Committee Chair Jae So, with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nakul Prasad, World Meteorological Organization• Neelima Kadirisani, Amazon Web Services• Kerron Martinez, GWP Caribbean• Åse Johannessen, Deltares
15.00 – 15.15	OPENING of the Network Meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Annual Reports & Financial Reports 2022 and 2023• Introducing a new voting mechanism for GWP Partners Dialogue with GWP's Chair Pablo Bereciartua and GWP's Executive Secretary & CEO Alan AtKisson.
15.15 – 15.30	Consultation on GWP's new strategy 2026 – 2030 Presentation of the process and findings of the survey
15.30–15.40	PITCHES of the 6 Breakout Groups with Partners
15.40–16.10	Testing the shift of our Network Meeting to allow Partner voting, while collectively shaping the new GWP Strategy 2026-2030 - Breakout Groups for Partners to join. Introducing the two questions up for a vote following the Network Meeting <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Should GWP open the possibility to receive voluntary financial donations from Partners? (We would retain the statutory policy that financial donation is not a requirement to become a registered partner.)2. Should we add the word "resilient" to GWP's mission statement? (So that it reads "... sustainable, equitable and resilient development") New Strategy and GWP's areas of work <ol style="list-style-type: none">3. Thematic areas – brainstorm new ideas Breakout Groups in other languages (discussing the topics above): <ol style="list-style-type: none">4. French5. Spanish6. Russian
16.10–16.25	An Interactive Dialogue with GWP's Leadership Reporting back from the Breakout Groups, with recommendations from the Partners & reactions by GWP's leadership
16.25–16.30	Closing