

Session Agenda – EURASIA Continental Session of the Network Meeting 2020

22 October

8:00 -10:30 am CEST/Stockholm time

Session summary: This session will bring together the regions of Eurasia (Central Asia & Caucasus, China, Central & Eastern Europe, South East Asia, and South Asia) to discuss inter-regional collaboration and partner engagement. The session will highlight existing work as well as potential cooperation areas. The first segment will introduce several potential collaboration areas for partners across the regions, followed by a discussion with partners on these areas. The second part of the session will engage participants around the question: “As water actors, how do you adapt your work to continue bringing change in a COVID-19 context?”

As an interactive experience where partners are invited to contribute their own experiences and perspectives, the session will allow partners from different regions to meet one another and share their views, contributing to a stronger sense of being part of “one GWP.”

Expected outcomes:

- Awareness of the work of other GWP regions and partners, and sense of being part of a large and vibrant global network
- Increased ideas for and commitment to cross-regional engagement and collaboration
- Increased motivation for GWP partners to be actively involved with GWP, and increased understanding of ways to better engage partners
