

Joint DMCSEE / GWP CEE capacity building training From monitoring to end users

Venue: Danubius Health Spa Resort Margitsziget
Budapest-Margitsziget, 1007 Budapest, Hungary

Date: Friday, 3 October 2014

Name of the section	TIME	TOPICS	SPEAKERS
1. Ways from monitoring to management - Existing monitoring	09.00 – 09.15	Introduction	Andreja Sušnik (DMCSEE)
	09.15 – 10.00	Drought and communication	Robert Stefanski (WMO)
	10.00 – 10.40	Drought Management Centre for Southeastern Europe (DMCSEE) & European Drought Observatory (EDO)	Gregor Gregorič (DMCSEE)
	10.40 – 11.00	Questions & Discussion
coffee break 11.00 – 11.30
1. Ways from monitoring to management	11.30 – 12.15	Remote sensing "new practices from Eumetsat and Copernicus programme"	Roel Van Hoolst (Copernicus Land Monitoring Services for drought analysis)
	12.15 – 12.30	Questions & Discussion
lunch break 12.30 – 13.30
2. Preparation of national and regional action plans	13.30 – 14.00	Overview of existing plans in the region	Tanja Tajnik (DMCSEE & IDMP CEE)
	14.00 – 14.45	UNCCD global framework on Drought Management and the regional response	Jamal Annagylyjova (UNCCD)
3. Good practices &amp; communication with end users "NAP/DMP in action"	14.45 – 15.30	Drought management principles in UK	Trevor Bishop (UK Environmental Agency (DEFRA))
	15.30 – 16.00	Questions & Discussion
coffee break 16.00 – 16.30
3. Good practices &amp; communication with end users "NAP/DMP in action"	16.30 – 16.50	The Romanian experiences in planning and management of drought – current status and perspectives	Elena Mateescu (National Meteorological Administration)
	16.50 – 17.10	Example from Greece	Christos A. Karavitis (Agricultural University of Athens)
	17.10 – 17.30	Questions & Discussion
Joint dinner 19.00			